

Chinese Opera Films after 1949: Music, Theatre, and Cinematic Arts

April 17–18, 2009

Film adaptations of regional operas were among the most popular genres in China from the 1950s to the 1970s. By examining Chinese opera films from various disciplinary approaches, this two-day symposium aims to expand understanding of the genre and rethink the interactions of Chinese cinema and theatre in a historical and comparative perspective.
